E. Financial Aid to Students, General Policy

3.010 Encouragement of Financial Assistance

To ensure maximum student access, the institutions shall provide financial assistance to students to the extent possible by encouraging gifts and grants for scholarships, loans, and other financial aids from government and private sources, and by developing and maintaining tuition remission scholarship programs from tuition revenues generated.